NEW YORK

FINE POINTS Thakoon's vibrant cocktail dresses—a Michelle Obama favorite—were extra-luminous on the fall runway, thanks to Fenton designer Dana Lorenz's exclusive industrial glass necklaces. fentonusa.com

MIAMI

FLORIDA NATURALS The new W Hotel South Beach hosts the lushest pool area in town and features rooms decorated with snaps by fashion and music photographer Danny Clinch. whotels.com

L.A.

MAKING MUSIC If you're headed west, check out Nick Cave's hypersonic "soundsuits" (surreal textiles that he wears while modern dancing) on view at San Francisco's Yerba Buena Center for the Arts. In early 2010, the show continues on to UCLA's Fowler Museum. fowler.ucla.edu

PALM SPRINGS

TRUE BLUE The Ace Hotel & Swim Club housed a pop-up Levi's suite during the Coachella music festival in April, which let the likes of Peaches Geldof and the Kills peek at the brand's newest styles. Look out for the opening of the Ace's newest location in NYC this month. acehotel.com

MALIBU

STOP 'N SHOP Malibu has another country mart! Not only does the new Lumber Yard house boutiques that include Tory Burch, Alice + Olivia, and James Perse—it also features a Crumbs Bake Shop. 3939 Cross Creek Rd.

PARIS

ABSTRACT ART Hot underground French line Rabbit on the Run creates funky T-shirt dresses and relaxed jumpsuits for late nights on the dance floor. Now hop on over to the Lower East Side's B.East and get your groove on. rabbitontherun.com
